RUSSIA AND JAPAN.

Great Tension is Observable Among the Populace of Latter Country.

THE EVACUATION OF MANCHURIA.

In Diplomatic Circles Great Hopefulness of an Amicable Settlement of the Imbroglio Prevails.

Fleet and Navy of Both Powers, However, Are Without Question Ready, and Large Supplies Have Been Accumulated.

Yokohama, Oct. 7.—With the approach of October 8 the nominal date for Russia's evacuation of Manchuria, great tension is observable among the Japanese populace, but in diplomatic circles it is reaffirmed that hopefulness prevails of an amicable settlement of the imbroglio between Russia and Japan on the basis of minor concessions by Russia in Korea and Manchuria, though officials do not profess to expect that the evacuation of Manchuria will be effected on the exact date named.

Baron von Rosen, the Russian minister to Japan, has returned here from a conference with the Viceroy Alexieff at Port Arthur, and had a short conference with Baron Komura, the Japanese foreign minister, on October 3. Baron von Komura has since given out a hopeful interview, but the Japanese minister for war and navy thereafter had a long conference with the emperor, Marquis Ito, president of the privy council, and Viscount Katsui, the premier, indicating that preparations are going on to meet any eventuality. The fleet and the army are both without question in readiness and large supplies for both the army and navy have been accumulated. The arsenals have been quietly at work for a long time past and the defenses have been minutely inspected.

Popular feeling in Japan is exasperated at Russia's dilatory tactics, and the excitement has been aggravated by the sensational press, which is constantly circulating rumors of fresh Russian aggressions. Many of these are of the most circumstantial character and are calculated to inflame public opinion. The officials deprecate these reports, which, it is believed in some quarters, emanate from Russian sources with the object of forcing Japan's hand.

The Japanese statesmen remain calm. Japan apparently considers herself capable of dealing with Russia single-handed. It is true that England is supporting Japan strongly at Peking and Seoul, Korea, but it is thought here that England and France desire peace at any price. Germany is ostensibly neutral. The United States is chiefly concerned in her commercial treaty with China, to be signed October 8, but the Japanese press claims that America is ready to yield Japan her strong moral support against any unfair encroachments. In spite of popular irritation, it is believed that the Japanese officials will be able to control the jingo element and maintain the present peaceful defensive attitude unless some new and unforeseen event precipitates fresh issues.

SULTAN'S ROYAL EDICT.

The Right to Excavate at Bismya, Babylonia, Given.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—The royal edict granting the University of Chicago the right to excavate at Bismya in Babylonia has just been issued by the sultan of Turkey, according to a cablegram received by President Harper Tuesday. The edict or "firman" is the result of negotiations carried on at the porte by President Harper. The work will begin at an early date, it was announced, under the supervision of Robert Francis Harper, professor of Babylonian and Assyrian languages at the university.

ITALIAN LABORERS.

Several Hundred to Be Brought to Birmingham, Ala.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 7.—S. Calanzano, the representative of the Italian consul in this city, has gone to New Orleans for the purpose of conferring with the agents of the Italian Steamship Co., looking to the bringing of several hundred Italian laborers to this district now on board a steamer directly from Italy, which will arrive at New Orleans in a few days.

The Bridge Over the St. Lawrence. Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 7.—At Tuesday's government caucus it was decided to guarantee the bonds of the Quebec bridge over the St. Lawrence at 93 per cent on $6,000,000. Legislation is to be introduced to that effect.

SHANKLIN MEMORIAL DAY.

Saturday Set Apart By the Trotting Horse Breeders' Association.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 7.—At a meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association Tuesday it was decided to set next Saturday apart as Shanklin memorial day. "The card that we will offer for that day," says Secretary H. W. Wilson, "has never been duplicated in the history of the turf, and I doubt if it ever will be again."

The complimentary list of tickets will be suspended and the entire gate receipts will be given to Mr. Shanklin's family. Despite the large amount of insurance that he left a full investigation of his estate shows that it is heavily encumbered. In addition to the regular program, Weber's band will furnish special music, including soprano and baritone soloists. Mr. E. E. Smathers has consented to send Major Delmar (2:00) to beat his record, or to beat the world's wagon record of 2:04 1/2, which he holds. Smathers, himself, will drive Major Delmar if he goes against his wagon record.

Prince Alert (1:57) will start to beat his record. C. K. G. Billings will start his champion trotting team, Equity (2:09 1/4) and The Monk (2:06 1/4) to beat the mark. Lou Dillon, the queen of the turf, will give an exhibition, but will not go a mile. It is probable that Dan Patch, the stallion king, will also appear.

The local lodge of Elks will work in conjunction with the association and will conduct an auction sale of the first 200 seats Thursday night. Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, the "Silver-tongued orator," will address the horsemen in the interest of the auction.

An effort is also on foot to secure a half holiday Saturday afternoon. Many merchants have agreed to close their stores then.

John C. Weber has also arranged to give a testimonial concert in the opera house some night next week, the proceeds of which will go to Mr. Shanklin's family.

THE OLD LOVE REKINDLED.

A Couple Separated For Eight Years to Be Reunited.

Petersburg, Ky., Oct. 7.—John Tingle, of Indianapolis, and Miss Anna Pease, who were divorced eight or nine years ago, again will be made man and wife here next Sunday. Tingle, a young machinist, came here from Indianapolis ten years ago, and married Anna Pease. Work being scarce, he asked her to go back to Indiana with him, but she refused. He then left her, and the wife secured a divorce. Tingle married an Indianapolis girl, who died a few months ago. He returned here recently and saw his former wife and their 8-year-old son, who was born shortly after the couple separated. The old love was rekindled and a reconciliation followed.

Henry, of New York, Sadie Mac, the favorite in the 3-year-old Kentucky Futurity Wednesday. It is reported that the price is $20,000. She is by Peter the Great, out of Fanella by Arion. Sadie Mac has a record of 2:11 1/2 and has not been beaten this year. Conservative horsemen expect her to go the mile Wednesday in 2:08.

The English Stallion Galtee Moore.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 7.—It was reported here Tuesday night that J. R. Keene has purchased the English stallion Galtee Moore for $125,000 and will bring him to America. Major F. A. Dangerfield, manager of J. R. Keene's stock farm here, discredits the story and says that if Keene has purchased the stallion he doubts if he will be brought to America.

Kentucky Farmers Fought.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 7.—A fight occurred at the Five Mile house in the Lexington pike in which Frank Snider was stabbed in the throat and stomach, and it is feared he may die. Frank Dorsey, his assailant, was stabbed in the arm. The men quarreled over some land which Snider rented from Dorsey. Snider is now under medical treatment.

Heavy First Day Registration.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 7.—The first day's registration in this city and Ludlow was the heaviest in years, and shows that both parties are using every effort to get their full party vote. In some precincts the registration Tuesday equaled the total vote recorded at previous elections.

HERBERT FUNERAL.

Services Conducted by Archdeacon of Wiltshire and Canons Mead and Oliver.

WREATHS SENT BY AMERICANS.

Body of the Dead Ambassador Laid in a Flower Lined Grave in the Churchyard.

Memorial Services Were Held in Washington Attended By the President, His Family and Many Other Distinguished Persons.

London, Oct. 7.—Funeral services over the remains of the late British ambassador to the United States, Rt. Hon. Sir Michael H. Herbert, were held Tuesday in Marlborough House chapel, adjoining St. James palace. Special seats were reserved for members of the diplomatic corps.

The king was represented by the earl of Suffolk. The mourners included the earl of Pembroke, Lord Herbert of Lea, the earl of Durham, Earl de Gray, the duke of Beaufort, Viscount Newport, representing Premier Balfour; Charles Ardning, representing the foreign office; representatives of the various embassies and legations in London, Arthur Ponsonby and Robert Goelet.

The service was conducted by the archdeacon of Wiltshire, Canon Mead and Canon Oliver. The music included Mendelssohn's and Chopin's funeral marches and an interlude specially composed by Sir Hubert Perry, director of the Royal college of music. The body was laid in a flower lined grave in the churchyard. Wreaths were also sent by Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Ogden Goelet, the earl and countess of Yarmouth and the American society in London.

The report that Sir Michael died in the Roman Catholic faith is unfounded.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Memorial services in memory of Rt. Hon. Sir Michael H. Herbert were held in St. John's church Tuesday.

Precisely at 12 o'clock President Roosevelt, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, Secretary Loeb and Col. Symons and Commander Cowles, respectively his military and naval aides, entered the church. They were received by the distinguished assemblage standing, while the thrilling cadences of Chopin's funeral march pealed from the organ.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were met by Arthur S. Raikes, first secretary of the British embassy, who had been designated by King Edward as his personal representative at the services. They were shown into the first pew on the right side of the main tier of pews and directly in front of the chancel. At the left of Mr. Raikes sat Maj. Maude, military secretary of Lord Minto, governor general of Canada, and his personal representative. Opposite the main tier of pews, sat R. T. Wilson, father of Lady Herbert, accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. Ogden Goelet and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and his sons, M. Orme Wilson and R. T. Wilson, Jr. Across the aisle to the right of the president the pews were occupied by Adm. Dewey and Lieut. Gen. Young and their staffs. The members of the diplomatic corps occupied pews directly back of the president, while officers of the army, navy and marine corps occupied seats in the body of the church.

The services were the prescribed funeral services of the Episcopal church. Dr. Smith was assisted by Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, rector of the church of the Epiphany. The musical program was rendered by the choir of St. Johns and the string orchestra of the Marine band, under the direction of H. H. Freeman, the regular organist of the church. The three hymns rendered were sung at the behest of Lady Herbert and were the same as those rendered at the funeral services in Great Britain. The hymns were: "Hark, Hark, My Soul," by Sir Joseph Barnaby; "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Fight the Good Fight With All My Might." Two anthems were chanted by the choir, "Lord, Let Me Know My End and the Number of My Days," and "I Heard a Voice From Heaven."

The only deviation from the funeral prescribed by the church ritual was the insertion of the name of King Edward in the prayer for the president of the United States.

IN ETERNAL SLEEP.

Hon. Wilson S. Bissell, Postmaster General Under Cleveland's Administration, is Dead.

DISEASE NOT WELL UNDERSTOOD.

He Passed Quietly Away With His Physician and Members of His Family at His Bedside.

During Latter Part of His Illness Messages of Inquiry Were Received From the Ex-President and Members of Cabinet.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Wilson S. Bissell, former postmaster general, died at 10:15 o'clock Tuesday night. At about noon he sank into a deep sleep, and it was with difficulty that he was aroused at intervals during the afternoon for nourishment and medicine. The end came easily and peacefully. Dr. Dewitt Sherman, the physician who has been attending him during his recent illness, and members of the family were at his bedside.

Mr. Bissell suffered with complications thought to be akin to Bright's disease, although not well understood.

On June 1 Mr. Bissell's trouble became so serious that he was sent to New York to consult specialists. It was thought an operation would be performed, but on examination the specialists decided that it would be better for the patient first to rebuild his health. He was sent to his summer home, Bar Harbor, where he spent several weeks. He spent most of the time there in bed and it was realized that his case was hopeless. In September he returned to Buffalo. Some important legal matters in which he was interested were disposed of and Mr. Bissell was again forced to bed. He suffered no pain, sleeping most of the time.

When awake his mind was always clear and he conversed with members of the family and the physicians. During the latter part of his illness numerous messages of inquiry were received from former President Cleveland and members of the cabinet in which Mr. Bissell served as postmaster general.

WHAT DID TAYLOR DO WITH THE MONEY?

In his opening speech at Munfordville, Col. Belknap, the Republican nominee for Governor, made the statement that at the close of the administration of W. O. Bradley $1,100,000 was turned over to the Democratic administration. Col. Belknap was grossly in error in this statement and the records of the Treasurer's office at Frankfort will disprove it. Col. Belknap forgot that W. O. Bradley was succeeded by W. S. Taylor and not by the Democrats.

He says that at the close of Bradley's term there was in the State Treasury $1,100,614.97. But if this money was on hand at this time—that is the $1,100,000—it went into the hands of the Republican officials under Taylor on January 1st, 1900, and all except $364,771.37 was spent by them. Taylor was a Republican Governor until ousted by the decision of the General Assembly. Those who held office with him were likewise Republican officials. This vast sum, which it is claimed that Bradley had on hand when the Democrats took charge, had dwindled to $364,771.37. What became of all this money? It will not relieve the Republican party from the charge of mismanagement or misappropriation to show that Bradley accumulated a million dollars if his Republican successor squandered or misappropriated it. In this transaction all Republicans look alike. It is no excuse that Bradley paid to Taylor. Republicans must answer to the people of the Commonwealth for Taylor as well as Bradley. They are responsible alike for the official acts of both.

Yet according to Belknap's idea of business, as expounded in his Munfordville speech, the present administration is to be charged with the amount which Bradley turned over to Taylor. After charging the Democratic administration with what Taylor received, giving no credits and "estimating" the revenue, Mr. Belknap arrives at the conclusion that we have "bought our government" at the rate of five million a year. This is an amazing financial blunder for a business man to make.

For the first time in eighteen years the State of Kentucky is now absolutely out of debt and every cent of the debt which was piled up in former years has been paid during the administration of Governor Beckham.

There are but three other States in the Union which enjoy the same distinction as Kentucky; Nebraska, New Jersey and West Virginia now being out of debt.

When Bradley came into office one of his first official acts was to issue $500,000 of 4 per cent. ten year bonds. He realized from these bonds $539,000. He caused the tax rate to be raised from 47½ cents to 52½ cents, and it so remained during the last three years of his administration; but at the beginning of the Democratic administration it dropped back to 47½ cents and so remained during 1900 and 1901. The rate during 1902 and 1903 was 50 cents.

It will thus be seen that the Republican administration under Governor Bradley for three years had the highest rate of taxation ever known in Kentucky. The difference in the amount of the revenue produced under this high rate, and the rate which has prevailed under the present administration is $1,000,000 in round numbers. To this sum should be added $539,000, proceeds of State bonds sold. These sums, amounting to $1,500,800 in round numbers, represent the income received by the Republican administration in excess of that received by the Democrats for a like period. What became of this vast sum? It was more than enough to have paid off all the debts which it was claimed that the State owed when Bradley assumed office and also to have left the State free of debt. But instead of this we find that the State owed more than a million dollars at the close of Taylor's term and had nothing with which to pay it.

Again we ask what become of this vast sum received by the Republican administration in excess of the ordinary revenue? Instead of the State being free from debt at the close of Taylor's term there was left an indebtedness of $1,700,000 in round numbers.

REGISTRATION.

Total Shows a Slight Increase Over Last Year.

Slight Decrease in the Democratic Total, and in the Independent Class—An Increase For Republicans.

The annual registration was held Tuesday. The Republicans were more active than the Democrats, and as a result they make a better showing than they did a year ago, but last year was an "off" year with them; but little effort was made by them to get out their vote in 1902.

The Democrats made a splendid showing Tuesday, all things considered, their total being only 16 less than it was a year ago. The increase in the Republican vote comes largely from those classed as Independents and non-committal last year. Below are given the figures for this year and for 1902:

There are to be nine grand gifts in CASH amounting to $100 ($50, $20, $10, $5, $5, $2.50, $2.50, $2.50, $2.50) and many other handsome and substantial presents, among which may be mentioned an elegant MORRIS CHAIR, pair of fine OPERA GLASSES, pair of Ladies' $5 SHOES, pretty JARDINIERE STAND, pair Gentleman's $5 SHOES, handsome PARLOR LAMP and numerous other smaller remembrances. Each patron present can count on receiving something worth carrying home.

Remember you pay no more for Boots and Shoes under this plan than if no premiums were offered. We sell a line of footwear that we are proud of, and you are sure to get the full value of your purchase whether you receive one of the principal gifts or only the smallest souvenir.

The Bee Hive!

The Question Now is Who Can Help You Most With Fall Shopping?

The answer is partly told in this advertisement, but fully told by a visit to the store. To-day's talk will have ready-made goods and this department we are especially proud of for we believe that there are few stores that show and sell the amount of ready-made goods that we do. (Of course we mean towns the size of Maysville.)

LADIES' SUITS—We are told daily that the best line of suits in town are here and at the rate we are selling them, there is no doubt of it. Suits from $10 up, but we are selling more from $15 to $35.

CLOAKS—From the one day old to any age, and while the weather is warm of course you do not feel like buying, but did you know that the best choice is the early one? Almost 1000 garments to select from, and where in northern Kentucky can you get such a selection? Come and look even if you are not ready.

HATS—Trimmed and ready-to-wear. For the very highest price hats you must go to the millinery store. We are only after the lady that cares to save a few dollars on a hat. $10 hats for $5 and we please you at the start—no coming back to see if it fits.

SHIRT WAISTS—In this line even our competitors admit we are supreme. "The Royal," the queen of the land; the best store in every town carries it. Price $1.49 and up.

WRAPPERS AND DRESSING SACKS—A little department by itself, but hardly an hour passes in the day that somebody isn't made happy by the provision we have made for her home comfort. 79c. and up and all cut full.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—We fit up most of the brides from the five counties around us, and who is more particular than a bride? The best of undergarments are had here and fair prices rule.

THE BIG SHOW.

This is Barnum and Bailey Day.

City Thronged to Witness Wonders and Delights of the Imposing Parade and the Exhibition This Afternoon.

This is Barnum & Bailey day. There is no doubt about it. The very atmosphere seems pregnant with the circus and the big show is the one topic of conversation.

The advance guard of the great throng here to see the greatest show on earth actually began arriving Tuesday evening, and early this morning all roads centering in Maysville were thronged with their human-freighted vehicles of every description. The early indications were that Barnum and Bailey day will prove one of the biggest in a long long time.

The first show train arrived before day-break, and this was followed by four other long trains. The ball park in the Sixth ward was soon covered with its field of tents.

The parade left the show grounds about 10 o'clock. There was a great crowd to see the start, and curious and interested crowds thronged the streets all the way down town. It was certainly a gorgeous pageant—such a wealth of processional splendor as Maysville had never seen before.

The entire parade was replete with novel features originated to please both old and young. From the big hand chariot, drawn by forty splendid specimens of horseflesh and guided with wonderful skill by a single man, to the ever-present steam calliope which is inseparably associated with all circuses, the showing was a most creditable one in every respect.

The artistic part was furnished by twenty-nine floats, including some handsomely designed triumphal chariots. Tableaux vivants were shown upon a large number of these marvelously constructed vehicles, the figures being correctly costumed to typify the nations of the earth. The horses in gorgeous trappings were mounted by outriders garbed in uniforms representing the various nations.

There were also allegorical chariots illustrating children's fairy tales, nursery rhymes and fables. It is unnecessary to state that these were the particular delight of the little ones. The wild animals in golden cages attracted their share of attention. These included ferocious beasts from all parts of the globe. Numerous elephants and camels with rich coverings gave a touch of the picturesque to the bewildering exhibition.

It was a great parade, and you don't want to miss seeing the greatest show on earth this afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

There will be no performance to-night, as the show has to make a long run to Lexington, via Ashland.

Mr. Frank Murphy and Miss Minnie Bay Bravard will be married to-morrow at Germantown.

Rev. Amon Boreing, formerly Presiding Elder of this district, but for six years pastor of the M. E. Church at Bellevue, was tendered a warm reception on his recent return from conference. Rev. Boreing entered the Kentucky Conference in 1867 and has now the longest record of service of any minister of the conference, thirty-seven consecutive years.

Lizzie Evans, a favorite in her line of light comedy, is to be the attraction at the opera house next Saturday, matinee and night. Miss Evans is one of the few clever little women of the stage. She has a snap and dash about her that have always been commented on for their refreshing effect. She will play the role of Claudia, a violinist, in the pretty comedy drama, "At Cozy Corners." Reserved seat sale now open at Ray's drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ryan, of Millsburg, entertained Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Ryan's sisters, Mrs. Jno. Gantley, of Wedonia, and Miss Annie Corbett, of Washington, and friends from Paris, Carlisle, Cynthia and Millersburg, making in all about twenty-five persons. An all around good time was had and a swell dinner was served. Mrs. Ryan is a very attractive hostess. The dining room was beautiful in pink and white, pink and white asters being profusely used in the decoration. The oak table which stood in the center of the room had renaissance lace doilies scattered over its glossy surface. The center piece was a large mirror, bordered with pink asters in the midst of which rested a silver candelabrum holding pink candles. The ices, cakes and bon-bons were all in white and pink. Mrs. Gantley and Miss Corbett received many pleasant attentions during their visit in Bourbon. Three parties, two luncheons and a very pretty informal afternoon reception were given in their honor.

WHEN BUYING A

Suitor Overcoat

For yourself or boy you naturally want the best for the least money. The best goods are always the cheapest, and as we buy and carry in stock more clothing than all the other stores in Maysville combined, our large purchases give us advantages that enable us to give you the best of merchandise at no higher cost than you would probably pay for lower graded clothes elsewhere. A word about the "fits" we give you. Perfect fitting garments are desired by every one, whether he pays $10 or $25 for a suit or an overcoat. Now "there" is a thing we are more particular about than the majority of our customers. We just won't let a garment go out of our house unless we are pleased with the fit. "You" need not look for imperfections. "We do," and correct them before you take the clothes home.

We want to call your attention to our line of the Manhattan new fall shirts. They are great and you will agree with us when you see them.

We want you to take a glance at the Stein-Block Cravenette Coat specially made for us. People who know say it's the handsomest garment they ever looked at. This coat is used both for overcoat and rain coat.

If you are going hunting this season buy a pair of our Milford High Top Shoes, they are strictly (guaranteed) waterproof. They sell everywhere for $6. We sell ours for $5.

WE ARE SHORT

Of cash and "long" on a certain make of Field Fence, therefore this tale is told to interest you: During the scarcity of Field Fence last Spring we bought a lot of "Pittsburg Perfect" to help us out on hurry orders, many of our customers finding it inconvenient to wait longer for other delayed shipments. Having about two-thirds of a car-load of the Pittsburg product left, in 26, 32 and 47-inch widths, we are very anxious to dispose of same so as to reduce stock to about the proper proportions. To effect a speedy sale of what remains of the "Pittsburg Perfect" we are willing to cut the price quite liberally. It is a good article and is well liked by those who have fenced their fields with it, and we make the reduction only for the reason stated above. Come in and see what we can do.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it, But it won't cure it. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get right at it. Reach the cause, relieve the pain. They cure too, so Maysville people say. Mr. W. L. Nicholson, of 14 Court street, employed by Russell & Sons, grocers, says: "The use of Doan's Kidney Pills by anyone who does much riding will help an aching back so quickly he will wonder greatly at the prompt and effective riddance of the trouble. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, on the advice of a friend and the results obtained were so satisfactory that it is a pleasure to recommend the remedy to others whenever opportunity is offered."
